Minnesota Medicaid Regulations and Guidance

Minnesota Medicaid policy covers transgender-related health care.

Decisions:

Court Decision: OutFront Minnesota v. Johnson Piper, No. 62-CV-15-7501 \(Minn. Dist. Ct. Nov. 14, 2016\)

Summary:

A Minnesota district court found that a categorical exclusion for sex reassignment surgery violates the Minnesota Constitution's guarantees of equal protection and the right of an individual to have authority over their own body.

Court Decision: Doe v. Minnesota Department of Public Welfare, 257 N.W. 2d 816 \(Minn. 1977\)

Summary:

The Minnesota Supreme Court found that (1) total exclusion of transsexual surgery from Medical Assistance coverage is void under federal regulations governing state Medicaid programs; (2) a standard of medical necessity that requires conclusive proof that a procedure will eliminate disability and render the applicant self-supporting is impermissible; and (3) the decision to deny Medical Assistance funding in the absence of evidence to contradict the applicant's showing of medical necessity is arbitrary and unreasonable.
