National Association of Nurse Practitioners in Women's Health

About the organization:

The National Association of Nurse Practitioners in Women's Health's (NPWH) mission is to ensure the provision of quality primary and specialty healthcare to women of all ages by women's-health and women's-health-focused nurse practitioners.

Statements:

- Healthcare for Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming Individuals

"NPWH encourages all NPs who provide sexual and reproductive healthcare to seek out learning opportunities to improve their ability to provide evidence-based, culturally competent care for transgender and GNC individuals. NPWH supports the role of NPs in providing gender-affirming hormone therapy and pre- and post-gender-affirming surgery care for individuals who desire such treatment."
